Data

- LOFAR uses 12-bit (8 bits over noise).
  Is 8-bit enough? Can we handle saturation?

- How much cosmic-ray data can the SKA system tolerate without interfering with ongoing observations?
  How much antennas do we read out?

- Can CR-observation run independently from regular observation scheduling? How are gaps in data-taking monitored?

- Where is the data stored?
  How is it transported?